

Courtney Rivard

University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
210 Greenlaw Hall
Chapel Hill, NC 27599
courtney.rivard@gmail.com
<https://courtneyrivard.com/>

EDUCATION:

- Ph.D. University of California, Santa Cruz, 2012
- B.A. Emory University, Magna Cum Laude; Phi Beta Kappa, 2003

PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS:

- 2018-present Director of the Studio for Instructional Technologies in English Studies, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
- 2012-present Teaching Assistant Professor, Department of English & Comparative Literature, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

PUBLICATIONS:

Book Projects

The Voice of a Nation: Mapping Documentary Expression in New America with Lauren Tilton and Taylor Arnold (in negotiations with publisher)

The Invention of Disaster Archives and the Rhetorics of Race, Gender and Nation (prospectus nearly complete)

Accepted for Publication

“Turning Archives into Data: Archival Rhetorics and Digital Literacy in the Composition Classroom” for publication in College Composition and Communication.

“De-linking the Federal Recognition Process: The Pointe-au-Chien’s and Isle de Jean Charles’ Stories of Contesting Archival Power” as part of special feature essay with the Indigeneity and Rhetoric Collective that emerged from the Rhetoric Society of America’s Summer Institute in Rhetoric Review

Currently Under Review

“Collaboration, Teaching, and Interpretation: Making Data Construction Visible” with Lauren Tilton and Taylor Arnold for publication in DH Quarterly.

Referred Journal Articles and Book Chapters

- 2018 “The Rhetorical Power of Archives: The Federal Writers’ Project, Wikipedia, and First-year Composition.” Teaching Rhetoric and Composition through the Archives. Eds. Wendy Hayden and Tarez Samra Graban Southern Illinois Press. (forthcoming)

- 2015 “Archival Recognition: The Pointe-au-Chien’s and Isle de Jean Charles Band of the Biloxi-Chitimacha Confederation of Muskogees’ Fight for Federal Recognition.” Settler Colonial Studies. (5.2)
- 2015 “Introduction: Indigeneity and the work of settler archives.” Co-written with Adams-Campbell and Ashley Glassburn Falzetti. Settler Colonial Studies. (5.2)
- 2014 “Archiving Disaster and National Identity in the Digital Realm: The September 11 Digital Archive and the Hurricane Digital Memory Bank” in Identity Technologies: Producing Online Selves. Eds. Julie Rak and Anna Poletti. University of Wisconsin Press.
- 2013 "Collecting Disaster: National Identity and the Smithsonian’s September 11th Collection.” The Australasian Journal of American Studies (special issue on "The Material of American Studies).

Additional Publications

- 2012 “Critique Matters, Too: Review of Museum Matters: In Praise of the Encyclopedic Museum by James Cuno.” E-misférica 9.1 (“On the Subject of Archives”). Eds. Marianne Hirsch and Diane Taylor.
- 2008 “Virtual\(ly\) Remembering September 11, 2001: Memorial Websites and U.S. Nationalism.” Collective Memory and Collective Knowledge in a Global Age. Centre for the Study of Global Governance, London School of Economics. Working Conference Paper.

DIGITAL HUMANITIES PROJECTS:

Photogrammar: Listening and Seeing America’s Documentary Record

Federal Writers’ Project Lead

Brings together the photographs from the Farm Security Administration with the Life Histories from the Federal Writers’ Project to give users the ability to search and visualize material from the Great Depression. Funded by the NEH and ACLS that has been visited by over half a million users, and was named as one of the five “Most Compelling Digital History Exhibits and Archives” of 2014 by Slate.

DIGITAL PEDAGOGY PROJECTS:

Mapping Foodways at UNC

Used blogging and geomapping skills to create a course project that facilitated student development of multi-modal composition skills to map the complex foodways at UNC.

Life Histories in the Federal Writers’ Project

Brought together archival research and wiki development to create a course project that created Wikipedia pages for individuals written about in the Federal Writers’ Project collection at UNC Southern Historical Collection.

GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

- 2017 Course-based Research Experience Development Grant for Rhetoric and Digital Humanities ($6000)
- 2017 Carolina Seminar for Transforming Inquiry Through Digital Text ($2000)

- 2016 American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) Digital Extension Grant for Photogrammar ($150,000)
- 2016 Data@Carolina Course Development Grant for Rhetoric and Data Visualization ($7000)
- 2016 Carolina Digital Humanities Course Development Grant for Rhetoric and Data Construction ($6000)
- 2013 University Research Council Faculty Research Grant for Living with Hurricanes: Katrina and Beyond ($800)
- 2009 Oakes Dissertation Fellowship, University of California, Santa Cruz ($15,000 plus student fees)
- 2009 Dianne Woest Fellowship in the Arts and Humanities, The Historic New Orleans Collection, New Orleans, LA ($3000)
- 2009 Graduate Fellow, University of California, Washington, D.C. Program ($5000 plus fees)
- 2008 Summer Dissertation Research Fellowship, Politics Department, University of California, Santa Cruz ($1500)

HONORS AND AWARDS:

- 2018 Digital Innovation Incubator Award for Course Integration Project, Carolina Digital Humanities Initiative, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
- 2015 Carolina Digital Humanities Initiative Faculty Working Group in Data Studies, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
- 2014 Faculty Learning Community in Digital Humanities, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
- 2010 Transnationalism, Feminism, Justice Dissertation Writing Workshop and Retreat, University of California, Santa Cruz
- 2008 Award for Outstanding Teaching Assistant, University of California, Santa Cruz

INVITED TALKS AND PRESENTATIONS

- 2018 Metadata, Description, and Structures of Archival Power. Invited talk at Penn State's Center for Humanities and Information. University Park

- 2017 Exploring, Curating, and Creating: Using Digital Rhetorical Tools for Archival Work. Invited workshop for Community Writing Conference. Boulder, CO.
- 2016 Invited Guest to Symposium on Invisible Work in the Digital Humanities, Florida State University
- 2015 Materiality, Archives, and Rhetoric: De-linking the Colonial Logic of the Federal Acknowledgement Process for Native Americans, American Studies Department, Johannes Gutenberg Universitat, Mainz, Germany

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- 2018 The Narrative Power of Metadata, Rhetoric Society of America Conference, Minneapolis, MN
- 2018 Creating CUREs in the Humanities, UNC System-Wide Undergraduate Research Development Summit. Greensboro, NC
- 2017 Photogrammar and the Federal Writers' Project: A Model for Teaching Data and Mapping Rhetoric. Poster presentation with Laura Wexler. Digital Humanities Conference. Montreal, Canada
- 2017 Teaching Data through Collaboration, Conference on College Composition and Communication, Portland, OR
- 2016 Critically Making Data: Digital Archives and Cultural Rhetorics, Cultural Rhetorics, East Lansing, MI
- 2016 Challenging Archival Power in the Federal Recognition Process, Rhetoric Society of America Conference, Atlanta, GA
- 2016 Collecting Disaster in Situ: The Smithsonian's September 11th and Hurricane Katrina Disaster Archives, American Society for the History of Rhetoric, Atlanta, GA
- 2015 Misery and Resistance in the Federal Writers' Project Archives: Teaching Archival Methods to First-Year Undergraduates, American Studies Association Annual Conference, Toronto, Canada
- 2015 Materiality, Archives, and Rhetoric: De-linking the Colonial Logic of the Federal Acknowledgement Process, Rhetorical Society of America, Summer Institute, Madison, WI
- 2015 Risky Connections: Federal Writers' Project, Wikipedia, and University Archives, Conference on College Composition and Communication, Tampa, FL
- 2014 Archival Recognition: The Pointe-au-Chien's and Isle de Jean Charles Band of the Biloxi-Chitimacha Confederation of Muskogees' Fight for Federal Recognition, Carolina Seminar in American Indian and Indigenous Studies, Chapel Hill, NC
- 2013 Archival Costs and Federal Recognition, American Studies Association Annual Conference, Washington, D.C.

- 2013 Collecting Disaster: September 11th, Hurricane Katrina, and the 'Common Sense' of Race, Embodied Objects: Material Culture Studies in Three Dimensions - Material Culture Symposium for Emerging Scholars, The University of Delaware and Winterthur Museum.
- 2012 Archival Recognition: The Pointe-au-Chien's and Biloxi-Chitmacha Confederation of Muskogees' Quest for Federal Recognition, National Women's Studies Association Annual Conference, Oakland, CA
- 2010 The Rush to Remember in a Digital Age: September 11, 2001 and Hurricane Katrina Internet Archives, Cultural Studies Association Conference, Berkeley, CA
- 2009 Collecting Disaster at the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History, National Women's Studies Association Annual Conference, Atlanta, GA
- 2007 Virtual(ly) Remembering September 11, 2001: Memorial Websites and the Production of Cultural Memory, Public Memory and Ethnicity Conference, Lewis and Clark College
- 2007 Virtual(ly) Remembering September 11, 2001: Memorial Websites and U.S. Nationalism, Collective Memory and Collective Knowledge in a Global Age Workshop, Centre for the Study of Global Governance at the London School of Economics

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

2012 - Teaching Assistant Professor, English & Comparative Literature, University of North Carolina, Present Chapel Hill

Data as Rhetoric (new upper division course)
 Writing in the Digital Humanities (new writing-in-the-discipline course)
 Networked Composition and Digital Rhetoric (new upper division course)
 Networked & Multimodal Composition
 Writing in the Social Sciences
 Diversity and American Literature
 Memory in a Global Age: Writing-across-the-disciplines First-year Composition
 Writing for Human Rights: Advanced Writing in the Social Sciences (new upper division course)

2008-2011 Graduate Teaching Fellow, University of California, Santa Cruz

2004-7 Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of California, Santa Cruz

SERVICE:

Professional

2018 Website Redevelopment Project Manager
 Coordinated and managed a team of developers, designers, coders and other professionals working on the development of the new English and Comparative Literature website.

2016- Associate Director, First-Year Writing Assessment

- 2018 Facilitated the data collection, assessment calibration, and data analysis for a multi-year assessment project geared to evaluating the learning outcomes of students in a mandatory first-year composition course.
- 2016- Writing Program Liaison
 2018 Served as representative on the Writing Program Administrative Committee responsible for steering the direction of the Writing Program, including the creation of a new mission, goals, and assessment metrics
- 2014 - Teaching Professor Advisory Committee
 2018 Member of advisory committee that serves as liaison between the English and Comparative Literature fixed-term faculty and the Department and University administration.
- 2016 Research Consultant for Linked Women Pedagogues Project by Tarez Samra Graban at Florida State University
- 2016- Faculty Mentor for UNC C-START – undergraduate students teaching program 2017
- 2016 Faculty Mentor for UNC Morehead-Cain Research Immersion Program
- 2014- Faculty Mentor for UNC Office of Undergraduate Research Celebration of Undergraduate 2016 Research Symposium
- 2016 Humanities Representative on Exploratory Committee on implementing Mukurtu (a mobile and open source platform designed for indigenous communities to manage and share their digital cultural heritage) at UNC
- 2013- Faculty mentor for Graduate Research Consultant in Writing in the Social Sciences
 2016
- 2014 - Organizer of Annual Best Teaching Practices Forum
 2016 Planned and organized end-of-the-year forum highlighting innovative pedagogy and strategies in classroom management.
- 2013 Professional Exchanges and Dialogues
 Facilitated podcast about Federal Writing Program Writing Project for writing instructors
- 2012 Faculty Participant Meals with Heels

Community

- 2008 – Research Assistant
 2010 Conducted archival research for the Pointe-au-Chien’s case for federal recognition as a Native American tribe.